

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Collation: Title, containing vignette of an Amazon and two headless men with faces below their shoulders, copperplate slightly cracked; the preface by Hulsius, "L. H. Benevolo Lectori," in 2 leaves; text, pp. 1-12; "Tabvla locorvm," with colophon, 1 leaf, verso blank. Sig. A-B in fours, and C in two. Folded map and 6 plates.

This Latin translation of Raleigh's account of his voyage to Guiana was probably printed subsequently to the German version of the same year (No. 67562, infra), which forms the fifth part of the series of voyages published by Hulsius. Page 2 is misnumbered 6 in the Lenox copy. The map and plates are the same as those in the German version. The map represents the northern part only of South America, with the date 1599. The plates, which are arranged in the following order, contain on the upper corners the page numbers opposite which they belong: Map of "Mare del Nort," "Terra di Paria," etc., p. 4; Plate of "Simi Vulpa," "Armadillo," etc., p. 5; Plate of the town of "Manoa odel Dorado," p. 7; Plate of a group of natives seated and carousing, p. 11; Plate of Amazons shooting at two men suspended to a tree, p. 14; Plate of two headless men, p. 15. Improved title of our No. 33659, Vol. VIII. Perfect copies are very rare. Another Latin translation, made by Gotthart Arthus from the Dutch version printed at Amsterdam in 1598, was included in the eighth part of De Bry's collection of voyages, 1599 and 1625.

RALEIGH. By the King. A Proclamation declaring His Maiesties pleasure concerning Sir Walter Rawleigh, and those who adventured with him. London. 1618. Folio, 1 page. BM.

Dated at Greenwich, June 9, 1618. It was reprinted in the "Western Antiquary," III. 196-197. Another proclamation relating to Raleigh, dated at Westminster, June 11, 1618, was reprinted in Rymer's "Fœdera," XVI., 92. See also Cayley's "Life of Sir Walter Raleigh," II. 410-411.

RALEIGH. A | Declaration | of the Demea- | nor and Cariage
of | Sir Walter Raleigh, | Knight, aswell in his Voyage, as | in, and sithence his Returne; | And of the true motiues and induce- | ments which occasioned His Maiestie | to Proceed in doing Iustice vpon him, | as hath bene done. | London, | Printed by Bonham Norton | and Iohn Bill, Printers to the | Kings most Excellent Maiestie. |
M. DC. XVIII. | Sm. 4to, pp. (4), 68. Sig. A-H in fours, and I in two, besides the two preliminary leaves. L. 67548

The first leaf contains only the letter A within a typographical ornament, printed on the lower margin of the recto. On the verso of the title is a woodcut of the Royal Arms. The King's commission to Sir Walter Raleigh for the voyage to South America in 1617, fills pp. 9-24; the account of his actions during that expedition and until his return, pp. 25-43; and the last division, beginning "Vpon Saterdag the 25. Iuly," etc., pp. 45-68. Pages 8 and 44 are blank, and there is no colophon. The "Declaration" is an attempt to justify the execution of Sir Walter Raleigh in 1618, nominally under the sentence imposed on him in 1603. Dr. Brushfield, in his bibliography of Raleigh in the "Western Antiquary," v. 219, says: "A copy of the letter from Sir Robert Naunton to the Marquis of Buckingham ... shows the date of publication to have been November 27th, 1618; and relates particulars of the great haste of the Government to publish both it and Sir Lewis Stukeley's petition. ... According to Edwards (i., 654-5, 715), Lord Bacon suggested it, 'penned it and published it;' and he attempts to exonerate the king, not only from all knowledge of it, but from any blame attaching to it. Apart from the extreme improbability of this, we have the following distinct statement of Lord Bacon, in a letter to Buckingham, under date November 22nd, 1618:—'We have put the Declaration touching Raleigh to the press, with his Majesty's additions, which were very material, and fit to proceed from his Majesty.'"

There are two varieties of this edition in the Lenox Library. In the copy described above pages 66 and 67 are misnumbered 62 and 63, and the last line (including catchword) on page 65 is "Maiesties Iustice, and the rest, evidently proued." In the other copy pages 65, 66, 67, and 68, are misnumbered 61, 62, 63, and 64, and the line "Maiesties Iustice," etc., is transposed to the top of the next page (misnumbered 62). Mr. C. H. Kalbfleisch has a copy in which pages 65 and 68 are misnumbered 61 and 64, and in which the above-mentioned line of text comes at the bottom of page 65 (misnumbered 61). In other respects the three copies appear to agree page for page and line for line. Another variety as follows:

RALEIGH. A | Declaration | of the Demea- | nor and Cariage
of | Sir Walter Raleigh, | Knight, aswell in his Voyage, as | in, and
sithence his Returne ; | And of the true motiues and induce- | ments
which occasioned His Maiestie | to Proceed in doing Iustice vpon
him, | as hath bene done. | London, | Printed by Bonham Norton | and
Iohn Bill, deputie Printers for | the Kings most Excellent Maiestie. |
M. DC. XVIII. | Sm. 4to, pp. (4), 68. Sig. A-H in fours, and I in two, besides the two preliminary leaves. L. 67549

This copy varies slightly in the imprint. It contains the leaf with the letter A preceding the title, and has all the pages correctly numbered. The last line (including catchword) on page 65 reads "Maiesties Iustice, and the rest, evidently proued." The last two leaves have evidently been reprinted, but in other respects it is the same as the preceding edition. Entirely reprinted as follows:

RALEIGH. A | Declaration | of the Demea- | nor and Cariage of | Sir Walter Raleigh, | Knight, aswell in his Voyage, as | in, and
sithence his Returne ; | And of the true motiues and induce- | ments
which occasioned His Maiestie | to Proceed in doing Iustice vpon
him, | as hath bene done. | London, | Printed by Bonham Norton | and
Iohn Bill, Printers to the | Kings most Excellent Maiestie. | M. DC.-
XVIII. | [Colophon:] Imprinted at London by | Bonham Norton and
Iohn | Bill, Printers to the Kings | most Excellent Maiestie. | Anno
1618. | Sm. 4to, pp. (4), 63. Sig. A-H in fours, besides the two preliminary leaves. L. 67550

The first leaf contains only the letter A, as in the other editions. A woodcut of the Royal Arms is on the verso of the title, and the colophon on page 63, the verso of which is blank. This edition is an entire reprint, but agrees nearly line for line with the others as far as page 43. Pages 45-63, however, were printed in smaller type, and contain the same matter as pp. 45-68 of the other editions. With the Lenox copy of this edition of the "Declaration" is bound the following petition, which also accompanies some copies of the other editions:

To the Kings|most Excellent Maiestie.|The humble petition and infor-|mation of Sir Lewis Stucley, Knight, Vice-|admirall of Deuon, touching his owne beha-|uiour in the charge committed vnto him, for|the bringing vp of Sir Walter Raleigh,|and the scandalous aspersions cast vpon him|for the same.| [Colophon:] Imprinted at London by Bonham Norton and Iohn Bill, Printers to the Kings|most Excellent Maiestie. Anno 1618. Sm. 4to, 1 blank leaf, pp. 1-17, colophon (1). Sig. A-B in fours, and C in two.

Dr. Brushfield says that "in a letter from Sir R. Naunton to the Marquis of Buckingham, dated November 27th, 1618, ... Stucley's petition is stated to have been published on the previous day." The "Declaration" was reprinted in Cayley's life of Raleigh, and in Spedding's edition of Lord Bacon's works, vol. vi., pp. 384-413; and both it and the petition were reprinted in the "Harleian Miscellany," and in Somers's "Collection." For a Dutch translation of the two tracts see No. 67592, infra.

RALEIGH. The|Discoverie|of the Large,|Rich, and Bevvivl| Empire of Gviana, with|a relation of the great and Golden Citie| of Manoa (which the spanyards call El| Dorado) And the Prouinces of Emeria,| Arromaia, Amapaia, and other Coun-|tries, with their riuers, ad-|ioyning. | Performed in the yeaere 1595. by Sir| W. Ralegh Knight, Captaine of her| Maiesties Guard, Lo. Warden|of the Sannerries, and her High-|nesse Lieutenant generall| of the Countie of| Cornewall. | [Ornamental vignette.] | Imprinted at London by Robert Robinson. 1596. | Sm. 4to. L.

Collation: Title, verso blank; dedicatory epistle to Charles Howard and Sir Robert Cecyll in 4 leaves; To the Reader in 3 leaves; text, pp. 112. Sig. A, ¶, B-P, all in fours. On page 102 begins "An Abstract taken out of certaine Spanyardes Letters concerning Guiana and the Countries lying vpon the great riuier of Orenoque: with certaine reportes also touching the same." This consists of "Letters taken at Sea by Captaine George Popham. 1594.," which fill pp. 105-112.

Three different editions of this book were printed in the same year, in all of which there are many variations in the spelling and typography, although their contents apparently agree page for page and nearly line for line. The following are a few of the peculiarities of the edition described above: pages 13, 43, 74, 78, 82, 83, 86 and 87, are respectively misnumbered 31, 41, 76, 74, 92, 93, 96 and 97; page 102 is not numbered, and the vignette at the top is different from that in the next following edition (No. 67552), but is like that in No. 67554; the third line of the first page of the dedication begins with the word "singular," and the sixth line with "miralls;" the heading of the dedication is printed "The Epistle Dedicatory" twice, and "The Epistle Dedicatry" once; the fourth line from the bottom of the eighth page of the dedication begins with "died phrase, forme, nor fashion;" the eighth line of page 3 begins with "ing the riuier Carone;" the seventh line of page 5 is "from the saide coast;" the sixth line of page 9 is "cared for in a sort farre more differing;" the twelfth line of page 60 begins "vpon it, there;" the last words on page 73 are "Wee there-;" and the last line of text on page 104 is "ment of the indifferent reader." Another edition as follows:

RALEIGH. The| Discoverie| of the Large,| Rich and Bevvtifvl
| Empire of Gviana, with| a relation of the Great and Golden City
| of Manoa (which the spaniards call El | Dorado) And the prou-
inces of Emeria,| Arromaia, Amapaia and other Coun-| tries, with their riuers, ad-| ioyning| Performed in the yeare 1595. by Sir| W.
Ralegh Knight, Captaine of her| Maiesties Guard, Lo. Warden|
of the Stanneries, and her High-| nesse Lieutenant generall| of the Countie of | Cornewall. | [Ornamental vignette.] | *Imprinted at
London by Robert Robinson* | 1596. | Sm. 4to, pp. (16), 112. Sig.
A, ¶, B-P, all in fours. L. 67552

This edition differs from one or both of the others in the following and in many other respects: pages 21, 82, 83, 86, 87, 92, 93 and 99, are respectively misnumbered 12, 92, 93, 96, 97, 98, 90 and 93; page 102 is not numbered, and the vignette at the top is different from that used in both of the other editions; the third line of the first page of the dedication begins with the word "singular," and the sixth line with "miralls;" the heading of the dedication is printed "The Epistle Dedicatory" three times; the fourth line from the bottom of the eighth page of the dedication begins with "studied prase, frome, nor fashion;" the eighth line of page 3 begins "the riuier Carone;" the seventh line of page 5 is "me from the said coast;" the sixth line of page 9 is "red for in a sort farre more differing;" the twelfth line of page 60 begins "on it, there;" the last words on page 73 are "We there;" and the last line of text on page 104 is "of the indifferent reader." A copy in Harvard College Library agrees with the above description in every respect, except that page 26 is misnumbered 18. This is the edition followed in the reprint published by the Hakluyt Society. Some copies have the following title:

RALEIGH. The| Discoverie| of the Large,| Rich and Bevvtifvl
| Empire of Gviana, with| a relation of the Great and Golden Citie
| of Manoa (which the spaniards call El | Dorado) And the prou-
inces of Emeria,| Arromaia, Amapaia and other Coun-| tries, with their riuers, ad-| ioyning| Performed in the yeare 1595. by Sir| W.
Ralegh Knight, Captaine of her| Maiesties Guard, Lo. Warden|
of the Stanneries, and her High-| nesse Lieutenant generall| of the Countie of | Cornewall. | [Ornamental vignette.] | *Imprinted at
London by Robert Robinson* | 1596. | Sm. 4to, pp. (16), 112. Sig. A,
¶, B-P, all in fours. C.H.K. 67553

The only variation in this copy is in the spelling of the last word in the sixth line of the title. The book itself agrees throughout with the preceding edition, No. 67552. A third edition as follows:

RALEIGH. The| Discoverie| of the Large,| Rich, and Bevvtifvl
| Empyre of Gviana, with| a relation of the great and Golden Citie
| of Manoa (which the Spanyards call El | Dorado) And of the Prouinces of Emeria,| Arromaia, Amapaia, and other Coun-| tries, with their riuers, ad-| ioyning. | Performed in the yeare 1595. by
Sir| W. Ralegh Knight, Captaine of her | Maiesties Guard, Lo.
Warden| of the Stanneries, and her High-| nesse Lieutenant gen-

erall | of the Countie of | Cornwall. | [Ornamental vignette.] |
Imprinted at London by Robert Robinson. | 1596. | Sm. 4to, pp. (16),
 112. Sig. A, ¶, B-P, all in fours. C.H.K., L., N. 67554

The following peculiarities will serve to distinguish this edition: pages 82, 83, 86 and 87, are respectively misnumbered 92, 93, 96 and 97; page 102 is numbered, and the ornamental vignette at the top is different from that in No. 67552, but is like that in No. 67551; the third line of the first page of the dedication begins with the word "singular;" and the sixth line with "mirals;" the heading of the dedication is printed "The Epistle Dedicatorie" three times; the fourth line from the bottom of the eighth page of the dedication begins with "died phrase, forme, nor fashion;" the eighth line of page 3 begins "sing the river Carone;" the seventh line of page 5 is "from the said coast;" the sixth line of page 9 is "cared for in a sort farre differing;" the twelfth line of page 60 begins "it, there;" the last words on page 73 are "Wee therefore;" and the last line of text on page 104 is "ment of the indifferent reader."

The following remarks on two of the editions, by John Payne Collier in his "Bibliographical Account of Early English Literature" (American edition), III. 268-71, will apply to all three editions: "That there were two distinct impressions of the above work there can be no doubt, although the important circumstance has been passed over without notice by all Raleigh's biographers, and has only recently been touched upon, when 'some trifling typographical differences' were alluded to, but not pointed out. The fact is, that Raleigh's 'Discovery of Guiana' was reprinted in 1596, from the first page to the last, and the typographical differences are to be reckoned by thousands, many of them upon each page, and some of considerable interest. The title-pages of the two editions, to a cursory observer, look like the same; but we have both before us while we write, and we find that there are at least a dozen variations in the fore-fronts only: on the third page of the Dedication nearly forty changes were made, and they extend even to the manner in which the initials of the author were appended in both instances. In the whole there are about 200 differences of typography in those eight leaves. Of course we cannot go minutely over the whole work, but in the last sentence of the body of it we detect a proportionate number of changes, not indeed altering the sense, but proving that every line in the book was recomposed. The fact is important, because it shows that the interest taken in the subject was so great, directly after Raleigh's return, that whatever number of copies was struck off in the first instance (and we may well believe it to have been large) it was insufficient to satisfy public curiosity. The names, especially of the Spaniards and Peruvians, are differently spelt in the two impressions; words are now and then omitted which are absolutely necessary to the sense, and the tense of verbs in not a few cases amended. In both editions Robinson, the printer, may be said to have done his work well, considering the haste, and the nature and imperfection of his materials in the first instance. The second impression shows that comparatively few typographical errors were committed in it; and we find that on the 2d May following Robinson was employed to print and publish copies of Sir W. Raleigh's patent for granting licenses for the sale of wines. The date is important, since it proves how soon after Raleigh's return from Guiana he obtained this valuable concession." Copies were priced by a London bookseller in 1880 at £20, and in 1885 at £50. The work was reprinted in Hakluyt's collection of voyages, 1599, Vol. III.; in Raleigh's "Works" (1751, 1829), and in the 1820 edition of his "History of the World;" in Cayley's "Life of Sir Walter Raleigh;" in the Hakluyt Society's volume for 1848; and in E. J. Payne's "Voyages of the Elizabethan Seaman (London, 1880). For a Latin translation see No. 67546, supra, and for the German and Dutch versions see Nos. 67556, 67558, 67562-66 and 67595-97, infra. A French translation was included in Coreal's "Voyages." At the end of volume vi. is an appendix (not in other editions), containing "The Discovery of ... Guiana," pp. 1-110; "Considerations on the Voyage to Guiana," pp. 111-133; "Orders to the Commanders of the Fleet," pp. 135-146; and "An Apology for the last Voyage to Guiana," pp. 147-176. The following is a list of the other editions:

The History of the World|At London Printed for Walter Burre.|1614| [Colophon:] London|Printed by William Stansby for Walter Burre, and are|to be sold at his Shop in Paules Church-yard at the signe of the Crane.|1614.| Folio, verses entitled "The Minde of the Front" on 1 leaf, recto blank; engraved title, 1 leaf; the preface in 20 leaves; the contents in 20 leaves; the first part of the history, pp. 1-492, 491-651, followed by 1 blank leaf; the second part of the history, pp. 1-776; "To the Reader" on 1 leaf; "A Chronologicall Table" in 13 leaves; alphabetical tables in 16 leaves; Errata on 1 leaf, with vignette and colophon on verso, followed by 1 blank leaf. The first edition, published without the name of the author. It was entered for license in the registers of the Company of Stationers, for Walter Burre, three years before, under date of April 15, 1611, as "The history of the world written by Sir Walter Rawlcighe." It has been stated that King James desired to have the work suppressed. The verses on the first leaf are by Ben Jonson. The elaborately designed title or frontispiece, engraved by Elstracke, was prefixed to all the subsequent editions to 1687, but in those of 1617-1634 without alteration of the original imprint and date. According to the British Museum catalogue there is another variety of this edition in that collection, in which the "errata" of the first issue have been corrected. The long printed title containing a synopsis of the contents and the name and portrait of the author, but without imprint or date, was probably first issued with one of the two editions published in 1617, and was used as late as the edition of 1652.

Dr. T. N. Brushfield (in the "Western Antiquary," v. 244) describes an edition with a colophon dated 1617, which seems to agree in every other respect with the collation and colophon of the edition of 1621, including the printed title with portrait.

This may be a mere reissue of an edition published in 1617. The copy described lacks both titles.

At London Printed for Walter Borre. | 1614 | [Colophon:] London. Printed for H. Lownes, G. Latbume, and R. Young. Anno Domini 1628. Folio. According to Dr. T. N. Brushfield ("Western Antiquary," v. 244) this edition is identical in title, leaves and paging, with the preceding edition.

According to Dr. Brushfield the copy at the British Museum has the engraved title dated 1665. A copy in the Boston Public Library varies slightly in the imprint of the printed title: London, Printed for Robert White, John Place, and George Dawes; and are to be sold by Thomas Rookes at the Lamb and Ink-bottle at the East-end of [St. Pauls] | MDCLXVI., and also in a portion of the pagination: pp. 747-752, 755-948, etc.

Dr. Brushfield gives the imprint of the printed title of 1677 in the British Museum copy and then adds: "My copy has a second title, with this addition:—'Whereunto is added in this Edition, the Life and Tryal of the Author.'" He also states that some copies of the earlier editions have inserted a reprint of this "Life" in 36 pages in double columns (see No. 67568, infra), and mentions copies of the 1614 and 1634 editions in his possession as instances of this kind.

The second edition. The map and plates are the same as in the first edition, and the latter contain the same page numbers in the upper corners. There is another copy of this edition in the Lenox Library which corresponds with the above as far as page 11, but contains a number of variations in signature C (pp. 12-17 and table), showing that this part was reprinted. The variations are apparent on page 13, which contains three more lines of text; and page 17 has but seven lines, instead of thirteen lines as in the other impression. Both varieties of this edition are among the rarest of the series. Reprinted again as follows:

Folded map and 6 plates.

The third edition, and the first to contain at the top of the title an indication of its number in the series. The map of the northern part of South America with the date 1599, and the 6 plates, are all the same as in the first and second editions, with the exception that some of the plates have different page numbers as follows: 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 15. Page 17 contains twenty-one lines of text. Another edition as follows:

Collation: Title, containing the same vignette as in the preceding editions, copper-plate cracked from top to bottom; preface "Zum Günstigen Leser" in 3 pages (recto of Aij to recto of Aij); the text, pp. 1-17 (verso of Aij to verso of Cij); "Tabel der Orter," without colophon, 1 page (recto of C4), verso blank. Folded map and 6 plates.

The fourth edition. The map of the northern part of South America dated 1599, and the six plates, are like those in the preceding editions, with the exception that the plates have the numbers partly changed: 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, 15. Page 17 contains twenty-two lines of text. The Lenox copy also contains a map of the southern part of South America, marked "Nº. 2.," and dated "Per Lewin: Hulsium. Aº. 1602," pasted to the other map, with which it was evidently made to conform in every respect. There are two other copies of this edition in the Lenox Library with variations. In one of them the vignette on the title has been reengraved, and may be distinguished from the cracked one formerly used by the absence of trees in the background. At the bottom is the mark of the engraver "T-I f." The plates in this copy are numbered 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, 16. In the other copy the vignette on the title is entirely different, representing a vessel at anchor and men on shore, with grotesque figures at the sides. This vignette also appears on the title of the nineteenth part of Hulsius's collection (Braun's voyage to Congo). Reprinted again as follows:

The fifth edition. Page 17 contains twenty-three lines of text. In the copy described above the title and text are in facsimile, but the map and plates are genuine. Perfect copies are in the Grenville collection at the British Museum, and in the Hamburg Library. For another German version see the eighth part of De Bry's collection of voyages, 1599 and 1624. See "Contributions to a Catalogue of the Lenox Library, No. 1," pp. 8-10.

RALEIGH. The | Life | Of the Valiant & Learned | Sir Walter

1 leaf, pp. 5-243, (1). Sig. A-P in eights, and Q in two. L.

The authorship is attributed by Wood ("Athenæ Oxonienses") to John Shirley, A.M., who was born in 1648 and died in 1679. It was evidently first printed in folio form (pp. 1-44, 51-54) in the edition of Raleigh's "History of the World" published in 1677, as several errors which appear in it there are corrected in this octavo edition, which also contains some additional matter.

RALEIGH. The | Life | of | Sir Walter Raleigh. | [London.
1677?] Folio, pp. 1-36. Sig. B-K in twos. P. 67568

Another edition of the preceding work, in double columns. It was probably printed for insertion in the earlier editions of the "History of the World." Title furnished by Mr. Charles R. Hildeburn, of Philadelphia. Another edition as follows:

This edition also forms a part of the "History of the World," 1687.

RALEIGH. The Life of Sir Walter Raleigh, from his Birth to his Death on the Scaffold: Containing, I. An Account of his Family, its Antiquity, Dignity, Power, and Wealth. II. The Share he had in the glorious and ever memorable Victory which the English Fleet obtained over the Spanish Armada in the Year 1588. VI. A Relation of a most desperate Engagement between Sir Richard Greenvil in the Revenge against the whole Spanish Fleet. VII. London: Printed for the Booksellers in Town and Country. MDCCXL. 8vo, pp. 576. Portrait. L.

This seems to be an unauthorized reprint, with numerous omissions, of Oldys's life of Raleigh, etc., from the "History of the World" published in 1736.

The "Instructions to his Son" and "Observations touching Trade and Commerce with the Hollander" have separate title-pages, and the latter (dated 1653) is paged separately and followed by a repetition of the "Seat of Government," pp. 65-71. For later editions see "Remains," Nos. 67577-67584, infra.

Given at Plimouth in Deuon. the third of May. 1617." Reprinted in Force's "Tracts," vol. III. There is another edition of this work in the British Museum, with the same title, date and pagination, but with the addition, on the verso of page 45, of "A view and survey of such ships as were in the river of Thames, ready to goe to sea, vnder the command of Sir Walter Rauleigh, Knight, and of their names, tonnage and number of men, taken by certaine Gentlemen appointed therevnto by the Right Honourable Charles Earle of Nottingham, Lord high Admirall of England, the 15th of March 1616," etc.

This is a reprint of Raleigh's "Report" published in 1591 (No. 67585, infra), omitting the appendix. It contains notices of Sir Francis Drake's expedition to the West Indies, and other matters relating to America.

RALEIGH. A Relation of the gouernment of Sir Walter Ra-leigh's fleete. London. 1618. 67576

According to Dr. Brushfield this book was "licensed on March 17th, 1617 (i. e., 1618), to John Trundle and Henry Gosson (Registers of Stationers' Co., by Arber, III., 289). No copy of this is known to exist. It was evidently Sir W. R.'s Orders. The date of the license is three months before Sir Walter's return from his last voyage."

RALEIGH. Remains of Sir Walter Raleigh; Viz. Maxims of State. Advice to his Son: his Sons advice to his Father. His Sceptick. His Letters to divers persons of quality. London, Printed for William Sheares Junior, in Westminster Hall. 1657. Sm. 12mo, Portrait by Vaughan, and pp. (8), 202; The Prerogative of Parliaments (10), 122. 67577

The first part of this edition is a mere reissue of the "Maxims of State," 1656, with the omission of the "Observations touching Trade and Commerce with the Hollander," and the addition of "The Prerogative of Parliaments." The latter has a separate title-page, and contains at the end "The Author's Epitaph, made by himself." The portrait is from the same plate as those in the two editions of the "Maxims of State," and contains the name of the engraver, "Ro: Vaughan sculp." A copy in the British Museum includes the title-page of the 1656 edition of the "Maxims of State." Several of the letters relate to Guiana. Lowndes mentions an edition of 1660, which may be the same as the following:

RALEIGH. Remains of Sir Walter Raleigh; Viz. Maxims of State. Advice to his Son: his Sons advice to his Father. His Sceptick. His Letters to divers persons of quality. London, Printed for William Shears ... 1661. Sm. 12mo. 67578

There is a copy of this edition in the library of the Boston Athenæum which lacks the general title-page, but contains the others as follows: [Second title:] Sir| Walter Raleigh's| Instructions| to his| Sonne:| and to| Posteritie.| Corrected and enlarged according| to the Authour's own Copie. | *London, Printed for W. The contents of this edition agree page for page with the preceding edition, excepting that "The Author's Epitaph" was omitted at the end of the volume.

Sig. A-F and A-C in eights. L. Watt and Lowndes mention an edition of London, 1632, 12mo, portrait. Dr. Brushfield says that "Haslitt (Bib. Col., 2nd series, 1882) reports 'the second Edition, Corrected and enlarged according to Authors owne Coppy,' ... published in 1632, so that there were two issues in that year. Wood records others of 1636, 1651 and 1656." He also states that it was reprinted "as a separate work in 1754 (Glasgow, 12mo, pp. 90), with a title commencing 'Instructions of a Father to his Son.'" The "Registers of the Stationers' Company," by Arber, under date of April 13, 1632, as cited by Dr. Brushfield, record the license of a book which was probably "one of the two editions issued in 1632." The same registers, under date of June 28, 1611, contain the entry, for Joseph Hunte, of an anonymous book entitled "The counsell of a father to his sonne, in Ten severall preceptes, left as a Legacy att his deathe." This may refer to an edition of Raleigh's "Instructions" published during his imprisonment. According to Dr. Brushfield, the first portion of the work was reprinted "as the first article in Instructions for Youth, Gentlemen and Noblemen, published in 1722 (pp. 7-42); and reissued in 1728, with a new title-page, as Walsingham's Manual or Prudential Maxims for Statesmen and Courtiers." It was also reprinted in the "Remains" and "Works."

A copy in the Boston Public Library varies slightly in the imprint of the printed title: London, Printed for Robert White, John Place, and George Dawes; and are to be sold by Thomas Rookes at the Lamb and Ink-bottle at the East-end of [St. Pauls] [MDCLXVI., and also in a portion of the pagination: pp. 747-752, 755-948, etc.

Dr. Brushfield gives the imprint of the printed title of 1677 in the British Museum copy and then adds: "My copy has a second title, with this addition:— 'Whereunto is added in this Edition, the Life and Tryal of the Author.'" He also states that some copies of the earlier editions have inserted a reprint of this "Life" in 36 pages in double columns (see No. 67568, infra), and mentions copies of the 1614 and 1634 editions in his possession as instances of this kind.

This German translation of Raleigh's account of his voyage to Guiana forms the fifth part of the series of voyages published by Hulsius. The map represents the northern part only of South America, with the following inscription at the top: "Nova et exacta delineatio Americæ partis avstralis. qvæ est: Brasilia, Caribana, Gviana regnum Nouum Castilia del Oro, Nicaragva, Insulæ Antillas et Perv. Et sub Tropico Capricorni, Chile, Rio della Plata, Patagonv, & Fretv Magellanicv. Noribergæ. per Levinum Hulsium. Anno. 1599." The same map also accompanies the fourth part of Hulsius's collection, which comprises the voyage of Ulrich Schmidel. The plates have engraved on the upper corners the page numbers opposite which they belong, and are arranged as follows: Map of "Mare del Nort," "Terra di Paria," etc., p. 4; Plate of "Simi Vulpa," "Armadillo," etc., p. 5; Plate of the town of "Manoa od el Dorado," and "Lacvs salvs Parime," p. 7; Plate of two Amazons on the left, with men and women seated and carousing, p. 11; Plate of Amazons shooting at two men, suspended by their legs to a tree, p. 14; Plate of two headless men, with bows and arrows, p. 15. Collation: Title, containing the same vignette as in preceding edition, copperplate cracked; the preface, "Zum Günstigen Leser S.," without Hulsius's name, in 3 pages (recto of Aij to recto of A3); the text, pp. 1-17 (verso of A3 to verso of Cijj); "Tabel der Orthern" and colophon, 1 page (recto of C4), verso blank. Folded map and 6 plates.

The second edition. The map and plates are the same as in the first edition, and the latter contain the same page numbers in the upper corners. The map represents the northern part only of South America, and is dated 1599. There is another copy of this edition in the Lenox Library which corresponds with the above as far as page 11, but contains a number of variations in signature C (pp. 12-17 and table), showing that this part was reprinted. The variations are apparent on page 13, which contains three more lines of text; and page 17 has but seven lines, instead of thirteen lines as in the other impression. Both varieties of this edition are among the rarest of the series. Reprinted again as follows:

The third edition, and the first to contain at the top of the title an indication of its number in the series. The map of the northern part of South America with the date 1599, and the 6 plates, are all the same as in the first and second editions, with the exception that some of the plates have different page numbers as follows: 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 15. Page 17 contains twenty-one lines of text. Another edition as follows:

The fourth edition. The map of the northern part of South America dated 1599, and the six plates, are like those in the preceding editions, with the exception that the plates have the numbers partly changed: 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, 15. Page 17 contains twenty-two lines of text. The Lenox copy also contains a map of the southern part of South America, marked "Nº. 2.," and dated "Per Leuin: Hulsium. Aº. 1602," pasted to the

This edition also includes a reprint of "Sir Walter Raleigh's Sceptick," published in 1651 (No. 67588, infra), with the "Observations of the Magnificency and Opulency of Cities," "Seat of Government," "Letters," etc. Several of the letters were written in Guiana. The "Instructions to his Son" and "Observations touching Trade and Commerce with the Hollander" have separate title-pages, and the latter (dated 1653) is paged separately and followed by a repetition of the "Seat of Government," pp. 65-71. For later editions see "Remains," Nos. 67577-67584, infra.

Given at Plimouth in Deuon. the third of May. 1617." Reprinted in Force's "Tracts," vol. III. There is another edition of this work in the British Museum, with the same title, date and pagination, but with the addition, on the verso of page 45, of "A view and survey of such ships as were in the river of Thames, ready to goe to sea, vnder the command of Sir Walter Rauleigh, Knight, and of their names, tonnage and number of men, taken by certaine Gentlemen appointed therevnto by the Right Honourable Charles Earle of Nottingham, Lord high Admirall of England, the 15th of March 1616," etc.

This is a reprint of Raleigh's "Report" published in 1591 (No. 67585, infra), omitting the appendix. It contains notices of Sir Francis Drake's expedition to the West Indies, and other matters relating to America.

RALEIGH. A Relation of the government of Sir Walter Raleigh's fleet. London. 1618. 67576

According to Dr. Brushfield this book was "licensed on March 17th, 1617 (i. e., 1618), to John Trundle and Henry Gosson (Registers of Stationers' Co., by Arber, III, 289). No copy of this is known to exist. It was evidently Sir W. R.'s Orders. The date of the license is three months before Sir Walter's return from his last voyage."

RALEIGH. Remains of Sir Walter Raleigh; Viz. Maxims of State. Advice to his Son: his Sons advice to his Father. His Sceptick. Sm. 12mo, Portrait by Vaughan, and pp. (8), 202; The Prerogative of Parliaments (10), 122. 67577

The first part of this edition is a mere reissue of the "Maxims of State," 1656, with the omission of the "Observations touching Trade and Commerce with the Hollander," and the addition of "The Prerogative of Parliaments." The latter has a separate title-page, and contains at the end "The Author's Epitaph, made by himself." The portrait is from the same plate as those in the two editions of the "Maxims of State," and contains the name of the engraver, "Ro: Vaughan sculp." A copy in the British Museum includes the title-page of the 1656 edition of the "Maxims of State." Several of the letters relate to Guiana. Lowndes mentions an edition of 1660, which may be the same as the following:

RALEIGH. Remains of Sir Walter Raleigh; Viz. Maxims of State. Advice to his Son: his Sons advice to his Father. His Sceptick. His Letters to divers persons of quality. London, Printed for William Shears ... 1661. Sm. 12mo. 67578

There is a copy of this edition in the library of the Boston Athenæum which lacks the general title-page, but contains the others as follows: [Second title:] Sir| Walter Raleigh's| Instructions |to his| Sonne:| and to| Posteritie.| Corrected and enlarged according| to the Authour's own Copie. | *London, | Printed for W. 5 prel. leaves, and pp. 1-122 (sig. A-E in twelves, and F in six). Portrait of Raleigh by Vaughan. In this copy, however, the "Prerogative of Parliaments" has been transferred to the front of the volume, the other part of which contains the following pieces: Maxims of State, pp. 1-78; Instructions to his sonne, pp. 79-107; the dutifull advice of a loving son to his aged father, pp. 108-122; Sceptick, pp. 123-138; Observations concerning the causes of the Magnificencie and Opulencie of cities, pp. 139-152; Seat of Government, pp. 153-157; Observations touching Trade and Commerce, pp. 159-207; Seat of Government [repeated], pp. 208-213; Observations concerning the causes of the Magnificency and Opulency of Cities [repeated partly], pp. 214-219; Letters, pp. 220-255; Pilgrimage, pp. 256-257; Verses, p. 258; Speech, pp. 259-264.
